FROM THE HOT SEAT

Can you believe we are in 2020 and will never again in our lifetimes see another “teen” year?

It is with a heavy heart that I step down as chairlady of KZNQG. It has been a privilege and honour to serve on the KZNQG committee. Thanks to all the hardworking, dedicated, enthusiastic committee. Thanks also to all the members who are always coming to the party with all our requests for goodie bag items, and for our green and charitable projects. Thank you to all the demo ladies for giving of their time and expertise. A big thank you to all the guilds who so enthusiastically participated in our catering projects. This has turned out to be a great fundraiser for our festival in 2023. Thank you also to all of our members for attending our meetings when you are able to.

But....you're not rid of me yet. I am staying on the committee, in a lesser role.

Keep the quilting flag flying

#each one reach one ....actually many!#

Dear members of KZNQG

Believe it or not, we are well on our way with the 2023 Quilt Festival that will be held in KZN.

Having done some research, we estimate that there are more than 5000 quilters in South Africa that we know of and only +- 2000 quilters belong to a guild. We are wanting to grow our love for quilting and grow the fold of quilters.

We need to use the benefits of Social Media as one of the vehicles to reach as many quilt lovers as we can.

I would like to encourage you to use INSTAGRAM and FACEBOOK (ask anyone who knows, to create an account for you) THEN.....

- * Post the work you are busy with (it doesn't need to be complete).
- * Post a class that you attend
- * Post an inspirational quote to encourage quilters
- * Post a video of you embroidering or sewing your quilt
- * Post a colorful flower or even a pattern that would inspire you
- * POST ANYTHING QUILTY

HOW?: Each time you post: type the symbol '#' and then type the accounts names exactly as listed above.

Please follow the listed Instagram accounts and share the quilting love by giving lots of "likes".

It's that easy! EACH ONE WILL HAVE REACHED MANY

Selection of quilts displayed at the November 2019 meeting

2020 World Quilt Competition: CALL FOR ENTRIES

South African quilt entries are invited for the annual World Quilt Competition. It's a wonderful opportunity to exhibit your quilts in the USA with shipping and customs handled by the World Quilt Competition organisers. This is the 20th consecutive year that South Africa has taken part in the competition.

There are some changes which you will see in the Entry Form: the new minimum size requirement allows for smaller quilts to be entered, more special prizes have been added and the prize money for the competition has increased.

Here's a brief summary about the World Quilt competition:

- The minimum quilt size is 6606 square centimeters / 1024 square inches (e.g. 81.30 x 81.30 cms / 32 x 32 inches).
- Quilts must have been completed in 2018 or 2019 or 2020.
- MAY 19, 2020 is the closing date for your Entry Form and JPG images.
- There is a non-refundable fee of R100.00 per entry. If your quilt is selected by the USA jurors, there is a further R200.00 fee.
- Accepted entries will premiere at World Quilt New England in August 2020, then tour to other Mancuso shows in the USA through November 2020.

If you would like an Entry Form to enter your quilt in this exciting international event please contact the South African Coordinator:

SHOWCASING... Paul Schutte

The SAQG Pro Dedicate Award was presented to Paul Schutte in 2019.

Paul Schutte is a Master Quilter, a respected National and International judge, a renowned, inspirational and popular quilt-making teacher, an ambassador for promoting SA quilt-making regionally, nationally and internationally. Paul has dedicated his service as a member of SAQG, from inception, to date, in various representative capacities, and as its President between 1996—1999.

"I delight in Light, Colour, Texture, Fabric Form & Stitching to create Quilt Art" - Paul Schutte

Paul kindly agreed to provide us with more personal insight into his art and quilt making via an email interview.

KZNQG: We understand that the start of your quilting journey has its origin with you helping your wife, Netta, to finish her quilts?

PAUL: Yes, it is true. Due to her full time job at the University and two sons to "educate" / rear, time was limited to finish unfinished tops. I gave my opinion about colour and fabric choices from the beginning, though. We were used to doing somethings together. I also helped with the ironing of fabric from the beginning. Being a more traditional quilter, she taught me how to do precise machine piecing.

KZNQG: Obviously you did some traditional quilting yourself. What initiated the move from traditional to your more arty style?

PAUL: I think it was a natural process of transition: One learns all possible quilting techniques by doing traditional patterns. In my case I was not satisfied enough with only traditional work and wanted to do my own designs and wanted to "paint" with fabric. I am a dare devil and want to try everything. Also a bit eclectic in what I do.

Right: For my grandson—Blooming 9-patch

KZNQG: What inspires you? I realise this is a very wide and general question.....Looking at your website and the quilts displayed, the impression I get is that you are attracted to nature and are upset by it's destruction and the negative effect that modern life and technology may have on our world?

PAUL: Nature; Yes, correct; especially trees; therefore my series about the destruction of nature due to careless technology. Sometimes I am also inspired by a piece of fabric or a certain shade or colour. In this case I will start with the fabric and go from there to an appropriate design. I love mathematics and therefore love to design my geometric oriented quilts on graph paper. The quilts about nature are done with an improvisational approach: let's start and see what happens as I go along.

KZNQG: What is your favourite technique to use?

PAUL: My techniques are rather conservative in the sense I mostly use ordinary quarter inch piecing. I am not at the forefront of the newest techniques. In my nature quilts I also use a lot of raw edge applique with improvisational / free style piecing.

KZNQG: What/who has had the most profound effect on your artwork in the past 10 years or so and how/why?

PAUL: I am not sure. I think nearly every work of art or a quilt that I see and admire has some influence on me. Maybe, to a certain extent Ruth MacDowell but I use a different method or technique.

KZNQG: What's next? are you planning to exhibit at an upcoming International quilt show? can you give us a hint at what you are working on next?

PAUL: No plans for an exhibition at the moment. I take part in group exhibitions of Fibre Works and FACT (an Art group in Cape Town ). As I am also due to teach this year in Port Elizabeth and the Free State, I am busy with samples for my classes. I also plan to do another tree series, but in a more abstract style. Oh dear, I must try to use all my fabric stash before my eyes will fade and my back collapse, so to speak.

Paul will be teaching two classes of two days each in Durban during the last week of February—the course is “Gaudi and Orphan Blocks” inspired by Gaudi’s architecture and mosaics, as seen in Barcelona. The classes are now full, thus no

Paul is also the KZNQG guest speaker on Saturday 29th February at the Open Day, from 9am at the Hillcrest Primary School.

THE END TO COLLECTIONS OF SCRAPS FOR DOG PILLOWS AND ECO-BRICKS

Due to time and storage space constraints, Lorette Kerr will not be collecting scraps for the dog pillows. Members can continue contributing to this worthy cause by each making a single pillowcase, hanging it in their sewing room and filling it with their own scraps. Once they have filled and closed/sewn off, they can be dropped off at the nearest SPCA.

Similarly, Jenni Scott will not be collecting plastic for eco-bricks. Please continue to sort your plastic and drop it off at your nearest collection points.

KLOOF VILLAGE QUILTERS' GUILD

Wow, it's already February and the first report-back of 2020 to KZNQG!

Our Christmas lunch, during which members and special guests enjoyed a spectacular spread as scrumptious as ever, is now but a distant memory. In lieu of gifts for 'we who have everything', we decided to share the spirit of Christmas in the form of a cash donation to Philekani, a newly established home for the destitute, the brainchild of Maryanne Carpenter and her husband.

A huge pile of 80 quilts were made and donated to the home by Community Quilters, some of whom are members of our guild. Many of you will know of this group who meet once a month to make quilts for good causes.

Our new committee for 2020, under the artistically talented leadership of Helga Beaumont, has firmly grasped the nettles of its various portfolios and everyone is working hard to complete our commitments for the 2023 Festival.

In our first member meeting of the year, we again welcomed Ginny Koumantarakis who broadened our artistic minds with an illustrated talk on Gaudi, the 19th century Catalan architect whose unique confections grace the city of Barcelona.

Ginny's an inspiration to every one of us, regardless of our individual quilting preferences. Her talk and slideshow was in preparation for workshops arranged for our members with Paul Schutte, a talented quilter from Potchefstroom, coinciding with his appearance at the KZNQG meeting.

We're immeasurably grateful to Colleen Roberts, who once again has offered up her Winston Park home as a venue for these workshops. She has a comfortable and spacious studio which looks on to her superb tropical garden, which is the perfect environment for creative endeavour! How lucky are we???

We wish all KZN quilters a happy year of quilting and safe travel to families and quilting events around the world; and we look forward to seeing 'old' friends again at the upcoming meeting.

Hibiscus Quilters Guild

Hello fellow Quilters,

A belated happy New Year to all of you, we'll skip the resolutions as we have probably forgotten them by now!

As we start a new quilting year full of inspiration and enthusiasm I hope that all those forgotten UFO's that are languishing in the back of the cupboard will be completed.

Last October Mary Chapman was our guest speaker – Mary always has something new and interesting to show us and her demo on Beyond the Half - Square Triangle Block was no exception. Another happy aspect to Mary's visit was that I was able to show her my completed All Things Bright and Beautiful wall hanging that I did with her and Thalia at Izotsha in 2013 ( completed circa 2016!)

October is also our AGM month and last year Althea Fairlie stepped down from her position as Secretary after 8 years. All is not lost however as Althea still makes our beautiful birthday cards, farewell bags and pincushions.

November was our last meeting for the year and we made Christmas crackers with fat quarters brought from the UK by Sylvia – another of our Committee members.

Our first meeting of the year in January was a very happy reunion of all our members – eager to hear what we have planned for the year. In the spirit of keeping things relaxed and low key we ended the meeting with our Thought for the Day which is – whether you are a glass half empty type of person or a glass half full type of person is not important. What IS important is that there is still room in the glass for more wine.

Happy quilting!

Margi

QUEENSBURGH QUILTERS

We concluded our last meeting of 2019 with a marvellous Christmas lunch/meeting hosted by Lynn and Lorette.

Our first meeting in January 2020 began with the AGM, Magda Lombard our chairlady stepped down and Annette Lee has taken over as the chairlady.

Magda has now become a "full time Ouma" looking after her grandson James, and after being the chairlady for a number of years, decided it was time for someone else to resume the chair.

We are currently working on our charity festival quilts for 2023 and have challenged our ladies to a Round Robin Quilt which Magda has undertaken to organise.

Rosemary Hurter, one of the founder member of QQ together with her daughter Kerenza Ritcher (also a QQ member) relocated to Australia, and they keep us updated via WhatsApp on the Australian quilting and knitting scene.

At the end of 2019 we were able to give two quilts made by our members to needy children who attend the day clinic at Greys Hospital for treatment.

The photo on the left is of a young girl who has to have dialysis every week.

The photo below is of a young boy who attends the oncology clinic and has recently had his leg amputated.

We were pleased that our work went to giving pleasure to two youngsters in need.

Janet Waring.

SHEFFIELD NITE OWLS

Happy new year to everyone.

Firstly I would like to say a big thank-you to Fiona Walker who stepped down as chairlady after 3 years in the Hot Seat, and did a really amazing job. We learnt many new techniques and enjoyed some fabulous workshops. The highlight for me was a collage wall hanging that took most of us way out of our comfort zone.

We shall continue to work on our charity quilts this year, and to this end we are going to complete a "block of the month" project which will hopefully produce some lovely quilts for us to donate to KZNQG for the festival beds.

At the same time and on the grounds that charity begins at home, a few of us with long standing helpers in our homes (not sure what the politically correct term is these days!) are going to make a "quilt for a maid".

Two of us have already booked in for Paul Schutte's class at the end of Feb and I'm really looking forward to that. - A few other things in the pipeline but more about that next time.

On a sad note we had to say goodbye to two long-standing members of Sheffield Nite Owls last year. Lynette Petzer sadly died of a sudden heart attack in November, and Lorraine Curtis and her husband moved to America. Lorraine was our quarter inch policeman and kept us on the straight and narrow!! Both ladies will be sorely missed by the group.

Happy quilting - Sue Freckleton

Midlands Quilters' Guild

MQG wraps up 2019

At the final 2019 meeting in November last year, the Midlands Quilters' Guild celebrated over a Christmas lunch with representatives from their chosen charity, the Jes Foord Foundation (JFF). Many people will recall the brutal gang rape suffered by Jes while walking the family dogs with her father in 2008. But the true story lies in her turning that torrid crime into an organisation that brings support and assistance to rape victims in various ways, so that they can progress from being victims to being survivors. In the current era of exposure of this global criminal trend in every level of society, Jes is a shining star.

A collectively-made king size quilt, aptly named "Starlight Express" (for bringing some light on dark situations, and put together in record time for a quilt of this size) was raffled and won by Margot Morford from Durban (see first photo), having raised over R13,200.

This money was presented to JFF PR Manager, Trish Gillespie (see second photo), along with a car boot full of donations for packs for adult and child rape victims.

Another recent outreach project had many KZN MQG members rallying to contribute, following a global appeal from another MQG (Modern Quilting Guild) in Wollongong, Australia: following the devastating bushfires, they were requesting that quilters around the world assemble blocks with trees on them, symbolic of life, nourishment and re-growth. Two dozen blocks (see third photo) were couriered from KZNs MQG to Australia this week. They will be assembled into quilts by the Australian MQG, and donated to bushfire victims who have lost their homes.

The Midlands Quilters meet at the Hilton Methodist Church Hall on the third Thursday of the month at 9.30am. All welcome! Contact Sarah on 082 335-4598 for further details.

GRASSROOTS Quilters Guild

The SPRING FUN DAY in October did not disappoint! Well done to Gill Lewis and her team of willing helpers for a really fun morning with delicious eats, inspiring demonstrations, and tables of the most unusual, and useful, items on sale. A great atmosphere prevailed throughout, and I for one left smiling and well fed. Thank you to all the guests who attended, and to everyone for making the morning, indeed, much FUN. The bar for Grassroots meetings has been set very high, and it will be interesting to see what 2020 brings!

2019 ended on a HIGH for Grassroots with the exchange of the wonderful results from the brown paper bag challenge, which ended when members handed over to fellow members articles that had been made especially for them! No one was disappointed at the beautiful end results—as you can clearly see from the photos. The High Tea in the beautiful and inspiring surrounds of Sheila Nichols' home was over catered for, as usual, with tables groaning under the weight of the most scrumptious eats imaginable. Members excelled, as usual.

To all members who suffered misfortune in 2019 we extend our thoughts, and are glad that together, we all got through our difficulties. Together at least we could smile and bring relief.

2020 started with an extremely inspiring talk at the January meeting. Carole Paxton gave demonstrations and explained Shabari dyeing of fabric, as well as Eco dyeing. The techniques were fascinating and the end results so VERY exciting. I for one wish to try my hand at this exciting project! It was amusing to witness how the actual expected result did not always happen, and instead a wonderful “surprise” emerged.

Hopefully, with 2020 vision in this new year, everyone will prosper!

South African Quilters' Guild
Promoting Quiltmaking in South Africa

The South African Quilters' Guild is the National Guild of South Africa, is a non-profit association with 11 Regional Guilds represented and other quilting groups and individuals that are affiliated to the SAQG.

MISSION STATEMENT: To foster an environment in South Africa where all those people who are interested can reach their full potential in quilt-making, nationally and internationally

SAQG strives to meet the following Objectives

- To promote Quilting in all SA communities.
- To set guidelines for the National Quilt Festivals
- To ensure competent and fair judging at SA National Quilt Competitions
- To organise Exhibitions from time to time e.g. the Biennial Travelling Exhibitions.
- To maintain an SAQG website.
- To encourage guilds and groups to participate in community, outreach and charity
- To encourage quilting amongst youth i.e. to grow future quilters.
- To encourage the celebration of the International/ National Quilt Day on the third Saturday in March each year.
- To maintain records of Heritage Quilts in Southern Africa
- To maintain a history of Quilt-making in South Africa.
- To compile and maintain a National Quilt Teachers' Register.

QUILTERS HALL OF FAME.

To all the KZNQG Members I would like to say a Big thank you to you l for nominating me for the Quilters Hall of Fame. Oh my word what an honour to receive a letter from Elsa Brits from SAQG to tell me that the nomination was accepted and that I would be inducted into the Hall of Fame. What an incredible honour and I have been so humbled by it.

Thank you all for putting my name forward. As you all know I am a passionate Quilter and will continue to be passionate about sewing and making quilts forever. My daughter keeps asking me "Mother what are you going to do with all these quilts?" I tell her that they are for me to enjoy making and for her to get rid of when I hop the twig.

*So watch this space. Thank you everyone
